Epiphany Celebration

January 6, 2022

Midway Christian Church will celebrate the Feast of the Epiphany with our 15th Annual Epiphany Dinner on Thursday, January 6, 2022.

This year's dinner will again be restricted to carry out beginning at 5:30 p.m. Ouita Michel's delicious menu of Medieval fare will be offered (see page 2 for more details).

The Epiphany Program, traditionally held in the sanctuary, will be available to watch beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Facebook and YouTube.

Epiphany Dinner Reservations due Dec. 29

Make a dinner reservation online by visiting our website at www.midwaychristian.org or calling 859-846-4102

The menu, inspired by the feasting days of Christmastide during the Middle Ages (11th through 14th centuries), will feature dishes representing the time period. As it was during this feast that King Cake was introduced, King Cake is served as dessert.

Each Epiphany meal* will include:

- Shiraz bi-Buqual (medieval cheese & walnut dip)
- Epiphany Dinner Pig
- Spelt Bread
- Rosemary Roast Pork with Sausages
- Mustard Sauce
- Honey roasted chicken
- Saffron rice pilaf
- Carrot pudding with currants and dates
- Sweet & Sour red cabbage
- Salad of lettuces, fennel, mint, parsley, flowers, and egg
- King cake

* Vegetarian option available upon request.

The cost for each meal is $30.00.

Reservations must be made by December 29, 2021.

As part of our Thriving Congregations conversation, the leadership decided that in year two of this grant, Midway Christian Church would take an intentional look at becoming an anti-racist/pro-reconciling community of faith.

Beginning in January 2022, we will study the book, "Anxious to Talk about It: Helping White People Talk Faithfully about Racism, Second Edition". Please let Heather know if you would like a copy.

When the weather closes Woodford County Schools, our office is also closed.
