Please let the office know of loved ones you have lost since this time last year, so they may be remembered and honored on All Saints Sunday, November 6 during our worship service. The deadline to have it in the November 6 bulletin is Tuesday, November 1, by midnight. Please include the full name and the date of your loved one's passing. If possible, please send us a picture of your departed loved one that we can share in a video presentation. Thank you.

October's Monthly Community Dinner Falls on Halloween

October's Community Dinner will be a little different. We will start the dinner at 5:00 p.m. and end it at 6:00 p.m. There will NOT be deliveries that night due to the roads of Midway being so crowded for trick or treating. We will have Papa John's Pizza for the dinner that night. All families are welcome to come have dinner that night before going trick or treating.
